

Safety Committee University
Safety Committee 201 Quiz

Name: _____ Date: _____

1. Employers who have _____ or more employees must have a safety committee.
 - a. 20
 - b. 11
 - c. 5
 - d. 100

2. All employers that Oregon OSHA has jurisdiction over must have either safety committees or:
 - a. Insurance
 - b. Safety Inspections
 - c. Safety meetings
 - d. None of the above

3. The safety committee playbook was designed to be a living, breathing document to help safety committees learn and grow. You can share ideas that will be added and shared with others.
 - a. True
 - b. False

4. Every safety committee member must be trained in hazard identification and control as well as the basic principles of:
 - a. Investigating accidents
 - b. Ergonomics
 - c. Fall Protection
 - d. How to make recommendations to management.

5. The purpose of the safety committees and safety meetings is to:
 - a. Make recommendations to improve workplace safety and health.
 - b. Creating job procedures.
 - c. Bring workers and managers together in a non-adversarial, cooperative effort to promote safety and health.
 - d. Both a and c.

6. The safety committee must:
- Make sure evacuation routes are kept open.
 - Establish procedures for conducting workplace safety and health inspections.
 - Conduct surprise safety inspections.
 - Discipline employees that do not follow safety rules.
7. Which is true about safety committee members?
- Management members can be assigned to be members.
 - Employees can be assigned to become members.
 - Employee members must be the majority representation.
 - Both a and c.
8. If during safety inspections, the forklift driver slows down or the worker puts on their safety glasses, why is that a positive thing?
- It tells you that they know the rules.
 - It tells you that you don't have a training issue.
 - It tells you that you have an enforcement and accountability issue.
 - All of the above.
9. The most important thing that should be documented for safety committees to ensure that follow-up occurs.
- All safety and health issues discussed, including tools, equipment, work, environment, and work practice hazards
 - Names of attendees
 - Meeting date
 - Recommendations for corrective action and a reasonable date by which management agrees to respond
10. Great ideas that attendees shared during this training to improve safety committee attendance and performance:
- If the committee completes the agenda too quickly, they will conduct a surprise inspection, so they have something to focus on next month.
 - People love being fed at the meetings.
 - Field observation cards to identify hazards are looked at weekly and the winners receive prizes.
 - All of the above.

Answer Key on Next Page – Do not scroll until quiz is complete.

Answer Key

1. Employers who have _____ or more employees must have a safety committee.
 - a. 20
 - b. 11
 - c. 5
 - d. 100

2. All employers that Oregon OSHA has jurisdiction over must have either safety committees or:
 - a. Insurance
 - b. Safety Inspections
 - c. Safety meetings
 - d. None of the above

3. The safety committee playbook was designed to be a living, breathing document to help safety committees learn and grow. You can share ideas that will be added and shared with others.
 - a. True
 - b. False

4. Every safety committee member must be trained in hazard identification and control as well as the basic principles of:
 - a. Investigating accidents
 - b. Ergonomics
 - c. Fall Protection
 - d. How to make recommendations to management.

5. The purpose of the safety committees and safety meetings is to:
 - a. Make recommendations to improve workplace safety and health.
 - b. Creating job procedures.
 - c. Bring workers and managers together in a non-adversarial, cooperative effort to promote safety and health.
 - d. Both a and c.

6. The safety committee must:
- Make sure evacuation routes are kept open.
 - Establish procedures for conducting workplace safety and health inspections.
 - Conduct surprise safety inspections.
 - Discipline employees that do not follow safety rules.
7. Which is true about safety committee members?
- Management members can be assigned to be members.
 - Employees can be assigned to become members.
 - Employee members must be the majority representation.
 - Both a and c.
8. If during safety inspections, the forklift driver slows down or the worker puts on their safety glasses, why is that a positive thing?
- It tells you that they know the rules.
 - It tells you that you don't have a training issue.
 - It tells you that you have an enforcement and accountability issue.
 - All of the above.
9. The most important thing that should be documented for safety committees to ensure that follow-up occurs.
- All safety and health issues discussed, including tools, equipment, work, environment, and work practice hazards
 - Names of attendees
 - Meeting date
 - Recommendations for corrective action and a reasonable date by which management agrees to respond.
10. Great ideas that attendees shared during this training to improve safety committee attendance and performance:
- If the committee completes the agenda too quickly, they will conduct a surprise inspection, so they have something to focus on next month.
 - People love being fed at the meetings.
 - Field observation cards to identify hazards are looked at weekly and the winners receive prizes.
 - All of the above.